Homework Submission Instructions

Michael Mulhearn

October 1, 2025

The PDF file for each assignment is available on the course website under Files or as a link from the syllabus page.

If you are using a python notebook to complete your assignment, please submit a PDF of your notebook, including cell output, to Gradescope. Post the ipynb file (and any other non-PDF supporting documents) to the course website.

If you are using C or C++, please bundle a listing of your source code and the program output into a single PDF file, and post it to gradescope. Then post your source files (and any other non-PDF supporting documents) to the course website.
